Welcome to the St. Clair Shores Players 51st Season.

We are planning a memorable season for our 51st year providing community theater to the public. The St. Clair Shores Players will continue the tradition of producing a variety of plays, from serious to comedy, realistic life to fantasy, with the intention of entertaining the public and giving them a glimpse of another life for a little while. Our Spring play will be Our Town, directed by Scott Smith. Auditions will take place February 23rd and 24th, from 7:30—9:30 pm at Good Shepherd United Methodist Church. Good Shepherd United Methodist Church is located on Harper between Thirteen Mile and Masonic. There are many jobs and tasks that keep the St. Clair Shores Players community theater group running smoothly, so if you would like to volunteer to help email us at scsplayersorg@yahoo.com or email Rachel Robinson, Producer at RachelRobinson@quickenloans.com

Just a few ways you can help the SCS Players:

- Volunteer to help with the production of our Spring show, Our Town.
- Do you have suggestions for helping to build our membership? Share your ideas! We want his group to grow and flourish. Here's a challenge: Can we grow to 50 members by the end of 2012? 100 members by the end of 2014? These are big goals, but not impossible. Your idea may show the way! Share your thoughts with us at the next General Membership or the next Board of directors meeting.

A Few Words from the President

Hi Everyone,
It's that time of the year when there is love in the air and love is all around us. That means it's time for our annual Valentine's Celebration on Friday, February 11th. We have a great time at all our social events, and I hope to see you there. On another note, I hope to see everyone try out for a part for the Spring production of Our Town, on February 23rd and 24th. There are all sorts of parts, some of them are non-speaking parts, something for everyone. See you soon!

- Scott Smith

December's Social Event - Rachel Robinson

Editor's Note: I wasn't able to publish a January 2011 Newsletter due to personal events took place in the December / January timeframe. I, however, do still want to publish the article Rachel Robinson wrote about the great time we all had at our Holiday Gathering in December.
—Linda Neuwirth, SCS Players Newsletter Editor

Well, I certainly think the Holiday gathering at the Jefferson Yacht Club was a hit! Special thanks to Peggy Eddie who was gracious enough to allow us to come as her guests and make the arrangements for our table. We had about twenty people attend and I think a jolly time was had by all. We enjoyed the beautiful sounds of the wedding montage the DJ so kindly blessed our ears with. We watched a crazy cult of witches dance to the Cha Cha Slide. We admired the half lit wreath above the roaring fireplace. It was certainly a night full of laughter, friendship, food, and fun. I thank Shawn for pointing out the beautiful chandeliers as well. I truly hope that Doug and Sharon were able to go home and take a nap, and also wanted to send well wishes to Sharon Kusch who was unable to attend due to feeling icky. It was great to see everyone before we dive into festivities with family and friends and we are all looking forward to a wonderful 2011 Season! Merry Christmas, Happy New Year and anything else you may celebrate, I will happily send good tidings for that as well!

Mission Statement

The St. Clair Shores Players is a non-profit community theater group serving the city of St. Clair Shores and the surrounding environs. The SCS Players seek to provide a quality live theater experience to the community and also to provide an outlet for local talent in the production of these plays.

Membership to this group is open to anyone interested in furthering the purpose of the group (you do not need to be a citizen of the city of St. Clair Shores).

The SCS Players have, since the group formed in 1959, always held open casting calls for its productions. If you've got talent and the desire to be in a play or helping in some other capacity we are interested in having you as a member of our group.
